Dissolvable stickers for use on cage bottoms

Infectious / Biological Hazard Cages

Chemical Hazard Cages

Dissolvable stickers for use on water bottles containing hazardous agents

Bottles Containing Infectious / Biological Hazards

Bottles Containing Chemical Hazards

Non-dissolvable stickers for use on carcasses and with cage cards

Infectious / Biological Hazards

Chemical Hazards
Tier 1 = Naïve Animal Cage

![Image ofTier 1 label]

Tier 2 = Rodent infectious agents that are NOT a concern to the general colony as determined by the RHST veterinarian.

Full substance name and date of administration is required

![Image of Tier 2 label on acetate]

Sticker on an acetate

![Image of Tier 2 label on vertical cage card]

Sticker on vertical cage card placed behind original cage card
Tier 3 = Chemical hazards, human derived substances (HDS), and non-rodent infectious cages; these cages will not be acetated as Tier 3.

For chemical hazards: full substance name, date of administration, and dosage/concentration is required.

Sticker on acetate

Sticker on vertical cage card placed behind original cage card

Non-Rodent Infectious cages: Full substance name and date of administration is required. Note: for human derived substances, it is acceptable to abbreviate HDS on the orange infectious hazard sticker.

Sticker on acetate

Sticker on vertical cage card placed behind original cage card
Tier 4 = Rodent infectious agents that are a concern to the general colony as determined by the RHST veterinarian.

Full substance name, date of administration and dosage/concentration are required.

Sticker on an acetate.  Sticker on vertical cage card placed behind original cage card.