

Pathogen Safety Data Sheets and Risk Assessment (PSDS)

Pathogen Safety Data Sheets (PSDSs) are technical documents that describe the hazardous properties of a human pathogen and recommendations for work involving these agents in a laboratory setting.

These documents have been produced by the Public Health Agency of Canada as educational and informational resources for laboratory personnel working with these infectious substances

<http://www.phac-aspc.gc.ca/lab-bio/res/psds-ftss/index-eng.php#e>